

ROBERTS & STEVENS

ATTORNEYS AT LAW

Philip J. Pence
ASSOCIATE

Philip J. ("PJ") Pence is an attorney at Roberts & Stevens with experience handling complex matters in employment law, litigation, health law, and medical malpractice.

PJ represents and counsels employers in a wide range of federal, state, and local employment matters, including claims arising under the FLSA, Title VII, FMLA, and the ADA.

He also advises clients on day-to-day employment issues, including personnel policies and procedures, independent contractor arrangements, employee misclassification risks, accommodations, and restrictive covenants.

Litigation is at the center of PJ's practice, handling complex litigation matters from the prelitigation stage all the way through appeal.

Prior to joining Roberts & Stevens in 2021, PJ practiced employment law at the Chicago office of an international law firm.
