

L. KATHLEEN POTTER HARGROVE

PARTNER

Kathleen Hargrove is an attorney at Roberts & Stevens, with a focus on estates and trusts.

Raised in Weaverville, Kathleen started working at Roberts & Stevens as a runner during a break from college in 2013, returning to complete her undergraduate degree in economics, with a minor in mathematics, from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. During this time, she was inducted into the international economics honor society, Omicron Delta Epsilon.

After moving on to law school, Kathleen continued to work at Roberts & Stevens as a law clerk. She received a Juris Doctor cum laude from Campbell University School of Law in 2019. While attending Campbell, Kathleen was the Bluebook Editor of the Campbell Law Review, served on the Student Bar Association executive board, and worked in the Senior Law Clinic, providing transactional and consultative legal services to low-income senior citizens in the Raleigh area.

She and her husband, Will, reside in Weaverville with their cocker spaniel, Georgia.

PROFESSIONAL

- North Carolina Bar Association, Young Lawyers Division
- Campbell Law Review Member and Bluebook Editor, 2017-2019

AWARDS AND ACCOLADES

- The Best Lawyers in America: Ones to Watch in America: Trusts and Estates, 2024-present
- North Carolina Super Lawyers: Rising Stars, 2025-present

EDUCATION

University of North Carolina, BA with distinction, 2016

Campbell University School of Law, JD, cum laude, 2019

PRACTICES & INDUSTRIES

Estates & Trusts

BAR & COURT ADMISSIONS

North Carolina State Bar

COMMUNITY

Children First/Communities In Schools of Buncombe County, Board Member, 2022-present

Campbell's Senior Law Clinic, 2018

Capital Area Teen Court, 2017-2018